Human Capital Management (HCM) is an approach to employee staffing that perceives people as assets whose current value can be measured and whose future value can be enhanced through investment. An organization that supports HCM provides employees with clearly defined and consistently communicated performance expectations. Managers are responsible for rating, rewarding, and holding employees accountable for achieving specific business goals, creating innovation and supporting continuous improvement.

Human Capital Management is a very important aspect of employees and in this event we will be witnessing different views on this topic from industry leaders.
